

TIP TOONS

It is useful to remember that all people go through a series of stages during their growth.

MATURITY FLIP:

The maturity flip is the point at which you move from being a self-centered child to becoming a self-aware, mature person. It also means that you take the feelings and opinions of others into account. The mature person develops empathy & reacts calmly & rationally instead of lashing out emotionally or violently.

